ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

2           A word-forming game for at least two players that includes twenty-3 eight aligned playing pieces. Each playing piece has front and rear 4 indicia thereon that includes an uppercase letter and a corresponding 5 lowercase letter therebelow. The front and rear indicia of a first and 6 twenty-eight playing pieces is a "star," while the front indicia of a 7 second to a twenty-seventh playing piece are each respective letters of 8 the alphabet in alphabetical order and the rear indicia of the second to 9 the twenty-seventh playing pieces are each also respective letters of the 10 alphabet, but in reverse alphabetical order. The method of playing the 11 word-forming game includes making as many words as possible from the 12 twenty-eight playing pieces, removing the associated letters therefrom 13 each time a word is made. The last player to be able to make a word is 14 the winner.
